EXPERIENCE

UX Researcher

Course Program at UQ/ Brisbane, Australia / Aug - Oct 2022

- The project focuses on developing an interactive installation that offers a compelling auditory-tactile synesthesia experience. Its objective is to promote a better understanding of the experiences encountered by minority groups among a wider audience.
- In support of the team, I conducted an extensive literature review and interviewed four individuals with synesthesia to gather valuable insights. Following the completion of the prototype, I devised a comprehensive testing process and analyzed the data collected from 20 participants to validate the effectiveness of the prototype.

Social Media Marketing Specialist

Smash Boxing Club / Shenzhen, Guangdong, China / Jul 2018 - Oct 2018

- Conducted thorough research on social events and emerging trends to select marketing topics and develop compelling copywriting strategically.
- Developed an advertorial campaign that seamlessly integrated with the gym's existing marketing initiatives, resulting in a significant increase in the gym's service purchase rate.
- Achieved 1000+ exposures within the initial phase of operating the social media account.
